Job Vacancy -

Café Bar General Manager—The Malt Cross

The Malt Cross is a vibrant Christian charity and social enterprise based in a unique and recently refurbished Victorian Music Hall in the centre of Nottingham. The charity is focused around a thriving café bar, Street Pastors, a Safe Space, music, art, heritage and local crafts and other successful social outreach projects. This is an exciting role in a creative, established, growing and much-loved café bar turning over around £700k per annum with approximately 30 staff.

We are seeking to recruit a passionate and enthusiastic, self-motivated and experienced General Manager to lead the Malt Cross forward. The role holder will have to think creatively in order to keep the business growing. Salary dependent on experience £21,000 to £25,000. For an application pack please email jo@maltercross.com.

Closing date: Midday 9th February.

COTGRAVE ACTIVITIES

TEDDIES FOR AFRICA-

If you would like a simple knitting pattern for a teddy bear, which will be given to a sick child in Africa, please pick up a photocopy at the back of church. Children recover much more quickly if they have a toy of their own to love. For a knitting pattern please email;

annayarrowfranks@gmail.com

The finished teddies can be returned to 'Grannies Tea Rooms' in Cotgrave. West Bridgford Knitters can give finished teddies to Priests to deliver to Our Lady Of Grace.

Children's Liturgy

We run the children's liturgy sessions during 10.30 mass each week in school term time. The Pre-School group meet downstairs and children must have a parent/carer with them. The School age children (Reception, Year 1 and 2, and Year 3 up until they do their First Holy Communion) meet upstairs and we encourage these children to come along independently. All our leaders and helpers are DBS checked.

If you would like to find out more, please get in touch with Angela Knott or Vicky Squire.
